FIVE OAKLAND PEOPLE ARE INJURED IN NILES AUTOMOBILE COLLISION

Rapid Progress Made On Niles Canyon Pass

Foundation for New Road Is Nearing Completion

With a large crew of men working every day, the construction of the underpass at Farwell Station in Niles Canyon is progressing rapidly under the direction of Bruce & Sons, of Pleasanton, contractors for the project.

Two steam shovels have been excavating dirt for several weeks and the fill for the new highway is almost completed at the present time. After the fill is completed, construction of the remainder of the underpass will move quickly, and it is expected the road will be ready for travel by this fall.

With its completion, the underpass will eliminate a dangerous grade crossing which has been a hazard to Niles Canyon motorists for many years, and do away with two dangerous curves on the highway.

ALLEGED DRUNKEN DRIVER HELD ON HIT AND RUN

Emil Christenson, who was arrested at Niles the night of the Fourth on charges of drunken driving after his car had crashed into one driven by A. R. Milton, of Oakland, had previously hit a pedestrian in Oakland, it was learned this week.

Christenson was arrested by Traffic Officer Tony Rose and lodged in the Hayward jail after the accident at Niles. Investigation revealed that the license number of his car was the same as one being sought for a hit and run accident in Oakland on the same day.

Christenson was arraigned on the drunk driving charge before Judge J. A. Silva in the Niles justice court Tuesday afternoon. Preliminary hearing will be held at the next session of the court. A separate charge on the hit and run count will be placed against the defendant in Oakland, according to reports. Bail was set at $500 by Judge Bacon, of Oakland.

The victim of the Oakland accident is said to be in a serious condition.

Hearing Is Held For Still Operators

John Martinez and Joe Keles, of Decoto, received their preliminary hearing in the Hayward justice court last Wednesday on a charge of possessing and operating a still. Both men were captured in a raid by county officers in Decoto three weeks ago, when a still and a quantity of liquor was seized.

Accident Occurs Saturday Afternoon Near Calif. Nursery

Five persons were injured, one seriously, as the result of an auto crash on the highway by the California Nursery Company near Niles late Saturday afternoon.

The accident occurred when a car driven by Jack Converse, of Oakland, traveling south along the highway, crashed into a machine driven by L. W. Gartnor, of Oakland. Converse said that he hit the Gartnor machine in the attempt to avoid crashing into a large blue sedan coming out of the nursery. The sedan did not stop and the identity of its driver was not learned.

Gartner was badly injured in the crash and was rushed to the Hayward hospital by an ambulance. In the car with him was his wife, and Mr. and Mrs. John Wingfield and small boy, of Oakland. Wingfield received two fractured ribs and severe lacerations of the left hand and arm in the accident. Converse suffered severe lacerations of the arm, while Mrs. Gartner and Mrs. Wingfield received minor injuries. The baby which was held by Wingfield was unhurt.

With the exception of Gartner, all the injured were treated at Niles by Dr. C. E. Grau. Captain Louis Eike, of the state highway patrol, investigated the accident.

Life and Death Visits Home Few Hours Apart

In a queer quirk of Fate, life and death both paid a visit to the Joaquin Silveria family, of Niles, within twenty-four hours, the first of the week.

Late Monday night, Joaquin A. Silveria died, as is related in other columns of this paper, while early Tuesday morning a baby son was born to Mrs. Joaquin J. Silveria, wife of the deceased man's son, at the Silva maternity home.

PLANS FOR SCOUT CAMP MADE AT MEETING

The Washington Township Scouters met Monday evening at the Newark grammar school. Due to the absence of J. E. Townsend, president, I. P. Beasley, scout executive, was in charge. Plans were made for the township camp to be held the last week of July. Ray Peterson spoke on the dance to be given Saturday night at the Washington Union high school gymnasium.

Beasley gave instructions in the passing of scouts tests. Later the men were divided into two patrols. "The Flying Eagles," and all Eagle scouts, with Jimmie Van Cleave, of Irvington, as patrol leader and the "Crows" with M. Scott, of Newark, as the patrol leader.

The next meeting will be held in Niles, August 15. There were fifteen men present.

LIFE'S DARKEST MOMENT

Flames Destroy Home Near Niles

Grass Fire Ignites House; Damages Will Total About $1500

Fire completely destroyed the old Slaton residence between Niles and Mission San Jose and caused a loss estimated at approximately $1500 Sunday afternoon.

The blaze began as a grass fire and originated when some small boys were burning rubbish. Fanned by a strong wind, it swept up the hillside and ignited the house. Only after a hard battle were members of the Niles fire department, who were called to the scene, able to check the blaze on the other side of the hill.

No one was living in the home at the time of the fire, but it contained considerable furniture which was destroyed. A valuable piano was among the household goods lost in the blaze. The loss was not covered by insurance.

HEARING IS SET FOR SCHOOL BUDGETS

David E. Martin, county superintendent of schools, has issued word that any taxpayer within the district may appear before the board of his district and object to the proposed budget or any item contained in it. For the high school budget, any taxpayer within the township may appear and voice any objections to the budget.

TRAFFIC FINES NET $100 IN NILES COURT

Twelve cases of traffic violations ranging from speeding to parking on the highway netted approximately $100 in fines in the Niles justice court Tuesday. The fines were levied by Judge J. A. Silva.

Reports of infraction of traffic violations have been growing in number during the last few weeks, but the efficient work of the state highway patrolmen in this territory is doing much to prevent such violations from becoming too flagrant.

Niles Fire Department Extinguishes Grass Fire

A grass fire back of the Niles grammar school house brought out the Niles fire department about six o'clock Thursday night. The blaze was controlled before any damage was done.

EARLY INDIAN LIFE DATA NEAR NEWARK SEEN BY STUDENT

Stanford Man to Excavate Native Burial Ground

Discovery of an ancient Indian burial ground near Newark recently may result in valuable archeological information being obtained for the study of early American Indian life in California, it was indicated last week by George Robinson, Stanford university student, who plans to excavate the ground.

Robinson, who is a medical student at Stanford, and a close student of early American history, said he had already taken several specimens of pampum—American Indian shell money—and several specimens of money beads from the graves uncovered recently by previous excavators.

The burial ground is located near the Southern Pacific tracks at Newark, and originally was part of a country home site purchased by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wadsworth, of San Francisco. Plans to construct a home on the knoll were abandoned when preliminary excavation work uncovered several Indian skeletons.

It was thought by Robinson that further excavation will add considerable knowledge now held concerning early California Indian life. That the Indians buried in the mound were members of an early-day California tribe was evidenced by the fact that the skull of each skeleton is covered with a small bowl or mortar.

During excavations for a civic flag pole at Niles several years ago, a skeleton of like nature was uncovered, with the skull covered with a similar bowl.

Robinson and a party of excavators expect to begin work on the mound in the near future.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

The Niles Christian Endeavor met Sunday night in the Congregational church, with seventeen members present. Evelyn Rose and Annabelle Henry were in charge of the meeting during the evening.

JOAQUIN A. SILVERIA, NILES FARMER, IS DEAD

Long Siege of Sickness Results in Pioneer's Death

Death claimed a well-known Washington township farmer Monday night when Joaquin A. Silveria passed away at his home on the Niles-Mission San Jose highway. Silveria had been failing in health for several months and had been in bed for the last six weeks.

The deceased resided in San Lorenzo for several years, but five years ago he purchased the ranch formerly owned by J. A. Silva, of Niles, and had lived there ever since. He had been engaged in extensive farming until his health began to fail.

Silveria was born in the Azores Islands fifty-six years ago, but has lived in California for thirty-nine years.

Known as a man who always had a warm welcome for his friends and the needy as well as being a loving father and a devoted husband, the deceased is mourned by many in this section of the county. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Silveria; four children; Mrs. C. Oblish Dorothy Silveria, Joaquin J. Silveria, and Clifford Silveria, and three grandchildren, all of Niles. A brother, Antone Silveria, of Hayward, and several other brothers and sisters also survive.

Funeral services will be held from St. Joseph's church in Mission San Jose at nine o'clock this morning (Thursday), with Father Leal officiating. Burial will take place at the Holy Sepulchre cemetery in Hayward.

TOO MUCH FOURTH JAILS MAN FOR ERRATIC DRIVING

WHETHER RALPH Ybarra, of Oakland, was in training for a hard drive over a winding mountainous road is uncertain, but at any rate he attracted the attention of Traffic Officer Duffey Lewis by the manner in which he darted from one side of the road to the other while driving between Niles and Hayward on the Fourth of July. Upon halting the car and investigating, the traffic officer came to the conclusion the driver was enjoying the Fourth too heartily to be on the highway and placed him under arrest. An empty jug said to have contained wine was found in the car.

Ybarra was taken to the Oakland jail. When he appeared before Judge J. A. Silva in the Niles justice court Tuesday afternoon and plead guilty to a reckless driving charge, he was sentenced to five days in the Oakland county jail.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

By NORMAN H. PARKS, Publisher Register

SURROUNDED BY PLENTY, WE STARVE

(PHILIP REILLY in Oakland Free Press)

Past panics that have come upon the country have generally come in cycles and can be explained by history. They were either caused by the aftermath of war, great epidemics, crop failures, draught or abnormal weather, but the present depression cannot be explained in that way, for there is plenty of money—actual cash—it's all here; our granaries are bursting with foodstuffs—in fact we have so much cotton that people are going naked; so many vacant houses and apartments for rent that people are sleeping in the streets and in garages. There's plenty of coal in the mines, but people in the East were freezing last winter.

Plenty of forests—plenty of raw material—so much garden truck and fruit that the peach growers alone in California are advised not to allow 180,000 acres to grow this year. This is only one of the solutions that some of our locoed "statesmen" offer to feed the starving millions—another is to plow up every third row of cotton; and, in order to help out the dairy farmers, kill every third cow—yet millions of children are in need of milk.

Strange that there should be a famine when there is abundance of everything! Would it be better, instead of stopping the growing of fruit and plowing up every third row of cotton and killing every third cow—that we eliminate every third corrupt politician and every third corrupt judge and give us instead, honest men who can give this country an honest government?

EDDIE, THE AD MAN

..Overacker's Platform..

As a candidate for Supervisor I am fully awake to the fact that our taxes are beyond our ability, as property owners, to pay, and I recognize that ways and means MUST be found to reduce them.

In view of these facts I submit the platform on which I faithfully pledge myself to stand:

To support economical and tax saving measures.

The voluntary reduction of the supervisors' salaries in proportion to the reduction, already made or to be made, of the salaries and wages of other county employees.

The elimination of expensive automobiles furnished the supervisors by the county.

The elimination of the position of road foremen as under the present charter they are given no authority over road work.

To dispense with the unfair and unnecessary road tax.

Fairness and impartiality to all seeking county employment and aid.

Assure the county of receiving full value for money expended.

Respectfully submitted to the voters of the first supervisoral district.

When grinding valves and removing carbon, keep carbon particles out of the openings into the "water jackets." Carbon should also be kept out of the cylinder head bolt holes, otherwise it might prevent the bolt from seating properly when replaced.

Do not stack baggage in front of the radiator. Each car is designed with aproximately correct cooling space. If obstructions are placed in front of the radiator there is danger of an overheated motor.

Sediment causing the vent hole in the gasoline tank cap to become closed has been known to cause motor trouble, particularly at high speed. When examining shake vigorously. If loose particles are observed, clean thoroughly, or replace the cap with a new one. To clean where the cap is in two parts drill small hole in the under side. After the sediment is cleaned out fill this hole with solder. There must be free passage of air through the gasoline tank cap at all times.

Norman H. Parks,
Editor Township Register,
Niles, California.

Dear Sir:

It has been said we are a nation of slogan users. We very glibly say: "Safety first," but we do not think it very often; we say "Honesty is the best policy," but we do not practice it much; we say "Let George do it." and that we do practice, with our present mess as a consequence.

We say "Hoover is to blame and glad to "pass the buck." We load him up with all of our own sins as well as his own, and so on down the line. We shout for beer because great vested interests want us to; we cry for repeal because great corporations want to get rid of heavy surtaxes—like sheep we are led astray.

The voice of the common people is not heard in the land. May I, as one of the common people, express my sentiments through the medium of your paper?

Yours sincerely,
July 12 MRS. W. A. SLOAN.

JOBS FOR ALL

-if dollars circulate!

Leading economists agree that a complete change of mental attitude on the part of each individual will help more to restore good times than any other factor . . . Bank of America's great statewide "Back-to-Good-Times" campaign has caused many thousands of wideawake Californians to make an economic right-about-face . . . They have discarded the old blue glasses of negative thinking, shed their needless fears, and have regained their courage and confidence . . . The next important step is to put all our unemployed back to work by circulating every idle dollar through our banks and business houses . . . A working dollar is more useful than a million in cold storage. It helps to build homes, keep factories busy, create business activity, finance agricultural interests, and keep ships and freight cars moving . . . The silver lining is already visible — and a change of mental attitude — a return to normal habits of buying and living and thinking will make everyone see it.

Raise in Postage Advances Office at Pleasanton

Beginning with July 1, the Pleasanton Post Office is now listed as a second class post office instead of a third class as it has been in the past, postmaster Charles Graham announced last week.

The increase in postal revenues at the Pleasanton post office has been responsible for the advancement of that post office, Graham stated.

Because of a Federal Act passed through Congress recently beginning Tuesday, July 6, all letters and other first-class matter, including that for local delivery or collection by rural or star route carriers at all Post Offices will be charged three cents an ounce or fraction of an ounce.

Letters in business reply envelopes will be charged three cents an ounce or fraction of an ounce, plus one cent additional for each letter.

Air Mail will be eight cents for the first ounce or fraction of an ounce.

No change has been made in the rate of postal cards, private mailing, nor on letters for local delivery at offices not having letter-carrier service. Postage on packages has not changed.

To the Voters of the First Supervisoral District

I am submitting my candidacy for re-election as Supervisor to the voters of this District with the knowledge and satisfaction that I have endeavored to serve you efficiently and honestly during the past eight years I have had the honor of representing you.

It is, of course, but natural that one who has lived a lifetime in this district, as I have, and has raised his family and formed many lifelong friendships hereabouts, should as your representative on the Board of Supervisors, want to conduct himself as to merit your support and goodwill, but I hope the people of this district realize that in this particular period of economic distress, experience in handling public affairs is absolutely necessary if we are to maintain the credit of the County, properly take care of the wants and needs of our less fortunate residents and at the same time, keep the taxes of the people at the lowest possible figure consistent with the reasonable and wise administration of county affairs.

I have given much thought and a great deal of time to the road problems in this district and I believe that the excellent condition of your roads demonstrates that my efforts have not been in vain. It has been my constant endeavor as a member of the Board of Supervisors to eliminate the local road tax which is assessed against property owners in the local district only. I am happy to state that through my continued effort I was able to reduce this road tax last year from forty cents on the one hundred dollars, to twenty cents on the one hundred dollars of assessed value. It will be my constant endeavor as a member of the Board of Supervisors to try to have this road tax which I consider unjust entirely eliminated.

The reduced assessment roll for the coming year and the extra outlay of money probably required during next winter to relieve the immediate needs of our deserving unemployed, call for the retention in the office of Supervisors of training and experience, men who have actual knowledge of the financial problems confronting our County.

I am doing everything, and will continue to do everything in my power to lighten the burden of the taxpayers and strive at the same time to see that the efficiency of our County government is maintained. I will keep, as I have in the past, a watchful eye on all expenditures, curtail them wherever possible; postpone any contemplated projects, not immediately necessary, that call for any considerable outlay.

I will be sure to see, however, that the needy poor of my district are properly provided for. I would rather err on the side of merciful help than frigid economy.

Realizing that the cost of living has been materially reduced during the past several years, I was instrumental in securing a reduction in the county salary roll of approximately $140,000 during this fiscal year. This was accomplished not only by a substantial reduction in salaries of employees but also by making a thorough survey of the various departments of the County government and eliminating unnecessary employees where it was found that the efficiency of the government would not be impaired. It shall be my constant endeavor as the budgets from the various departments are presented to the Board during the month of August to pare them down to the very last dollar consistent with good government. I believe in this way that inasmuch as the assessment roll has been very materially reduced that the tax rate can be kept at the same level and possibly at a lower figure than obtained during the year 1931-32.

If re-elected I promise you the same efficient, economic, and courteous administration of the office of Supervisor of the First District, that I have given in the past.

Most respectfully yours,
RALPH V. RICHMOND

DECOTO FIRE UNIT HAS ACTIVE YEAR, REPORT REVEALS

Five Insurance Rates For District Are Reduced

At the meeting of the Decoto fire commissioners held Wednesday, July 6, Fire Chief Roland Bendel submitted his annual report, covering the activities of his department during the fiscal year, July 1, 1931 to June 30, 1932.

According to the report, the fire unit responded to eighteen alarms, covered fifty miles in distance, 600 feet of one and one half inch hose lines were stretched, 1725 feet of three fourths inch of booster lines stretched, 108 feet of ladder raised.

Losses from fire were estimated at $10,165, $10,000 of which being charged to the Salz barn fire when nineteen horses, the barn, and other equipment were destroyed. One run was made to a neighboring district. The total loss of the remaining sixteen fires amounted to $165, most of which was covered by insurance.

After a survey by the Board of Fire Underwriters, a five per cent reduction in fire insurance rates was allowed throughout the district, and an additional five per cent within 750 feet of five hydrants, during the year just ended.

Last August, the equipment was completely modernized, with the chemical equipment being rebuilt into a triple combination pumper carying a booster tank of 250 gallons capacity, and a pump of 300 gallons per minute pumping capacity.

Fourth of July Parade Is Best In Pleasanton

Line of March Was Over One Mile in Length

One of the most beautiful and colorful parades ever held in Alameda county was held in Pleasanton last Monday morning, the Fourth of July, in connection with the First Annual Junior Chamber of Commerce Community Celebration held there on July 2, 3 and 4.

The parade according to witnesses, was over one mile long and consisted of bands, drill teams, drum and bugle corps, attractive horses, and beautiful floats. All floats taking part in the parade were attractively decorated, and it would have been a difficult task to pick out the best one had there been prizes to award.

The parade was led by the grand marshal, Lee Wells, followed by Aides L. E. Van Patten, H. Radbruch, M. Garbini, and R. W. Apperson. Next were the colors carried by members of the Pleasanton American Legion Post. Charles Graham, chairman of the parade committee, followed next in line. The Amador Valley high school band was followed by the California Grays' Drill Team, of San Francisco.

Following in a beautifull decorated float came Miss Doris Grana, of Pleasanton, as Goddess of Liberty. Miss Grana looked charming in her costume. It consisted of a white satin gown, draped with the American flag. On her head was a crown of pearls. She held a rod, tipped with a glittering star, in her hand.

Following the Goddess of Liberty was the American Legion Post and the American Legion Auxiliary, of Pleasanton.

The second division of the parade was under the direction of Rollie Harr's and consisted of floats and decorated autos entered by civic organizations. In this section was a beautiful float entered by the Women's Improvement Club, upon which officers of the organization rode. The Alisal Improvement Club was represented by a large float decorated in blue and gold colors representing the clubs colors; they also had an impressive decorated car signifying that Happy Valley residents need a school bus; the Pleasanton Farm Home Department, and the Pleasanton Chamber of Commerce, and Lions Club.

The third division was under the direction of John J. Amaral, and consisted of fraternal organizations. The Emeryville Post of Foreign Wars drum and bugle corps followed by a drill team of the women's auxiliary lead this division. Following came the Mission San Jose Drill team, dressed in white uniforms trimmed in blue, under the direction of Miss Hazel Mendoza, of Sunol. Then there were decorated autos entered by the Pleasanton S. P. R. S. I. lodge, the Catholic Daughters, and other lodges. The Native Sons and Daughters, of Pleasanton, entered a large float decorated in gold upon which rode Miss Gladys Rose, of Pleasanton, representing Minerva.

The fourth division was headed by E. W. Schween and consisted of floats entered by the business houses of Pleasanton. This section had some very beautifully decorated floats. They were all so well decorated that it was impossible to distinguish the best float. The business houses entered in this section were Christesen and Greve, J. J. Amaral Service Station, The United States Post Office Service, Henry Cook Real Estate, E. W. Schween Real Estate, Cruikshank and Kolln Hardware store, Pleasanton Furniture Store, the Pleasanton Race track, Valley Creamery, Safeway Stores, and Roraback Service Station, of Sunol.

The fifth division was under the direction of Lee Wells and consisted of a number of attractively decorated autos entered by the citizens in the community.

The sixth division was the Livermore section under the direction of Dr. F. Leslie Herrick. In this section were some beautiful horses, carriages, decorated autos.

The parade was beautiful and interesting from the beginning to end and lasted for over an hour.

WELL INFORMED

No, she doesn't know Browning at all;
Not unless it's on top her beans.
And of Bacon her knowledge is small,
When it's not in connection with greens.
If you talk of Renaissance to her
She will wonder what dish that can be.
All the same I can truly aver
That a well informed woman is she.
She is one of the skillfullest cooks,
Although culture is not in her line.
She hasn't any passion for books,
Yet she thinks that Miss Libby is "fine".
She has never read Haeckel or Mill,
She is dense to a startling degree
In some ways I might mention, yet still
A well informed woman is she.
For she knows why the Browns are in debt,
And who made Mrs. Hopkins' gown.
And the awfully dissolute set
That the Parkers have trailed with in town.

A diminishing oil pressure when the car is hot does not always mean merely that the heat has diluted the lubricant. It may be a sign of excessive looseness in the bearings. This is a condition which may show up on the oil guage.

H. Arendt Store Changes Hands in Pleasanton

H. Arendt and Company has sold its dry goods and grocery merchandise to Liberman and Rosencrantz Company, of San Francisco last week, according to an announcement made by Jerome Arendt in Pleasanton.

The store has closed temporarily while the new owners prepare for a sale. It is expected to be open to the public sometime next week. The new owners will operate the store in the same manner that it has been managed in the past. The same staff of employees will be engaged at the store.

The H. Arendt and Company will continue to run a hay and grain business. Their business office will be located next to the store at 444 Main street. They will also continue with the storage business, lumber, coal, feeds of all kinds, and building material.

H. Arendt and Company has been in business for the past seventy years. The firm was one of the first businesses to start in Pleasanton.

H. Arendt started his general merchandise, hay, and grain business in 1862, in a building where the Bank of America is now located. His nephew Joseph Arendt, who is now one of the owners of the firm, started working for H. Arendt when he was sixteen years of age, in the year of 1874. After being employed for a number of years Joseph Arendt took a part in the business. H. Arendt worked continuously in the business until his death which occured in the year of 1905.

After the death of H. Arendt his sons Jerome and Alfred took over the business together with Joseph Arendt. After a few years Alfred Arendt withdrew from the business leaving Jerome and Joseph Arendt in the firm, who have successfully conducted the large business up to the present.

Hit-Run Driver Gets Arrested In Pleasanton

Tilman Nerton Is Knocked Across Highway Into Arms of Cop

When Tilman Nerton, of Santa Rita, went to examine a wreck on the Dublin Highway near his home, he little dreamed that he would experience being tossed clear across the highway and into the arms of a traffic officer. That is just what happened recently.

A passing car swerved suddenly around the wreck. Tilman was struck a glancing blow and knocked across the highway into the arms of Cliff Ralph, traffic patrolman. The car failed to stop.

Ralph gave chase to the motorist and overhauled Charles T. Curtis, of Oakland. He was arrested on a charge of reckless driving.

When he was brought before Judge C. A. Gale last Tuesday morning he pleaded not guilty and date for his trial was set for Tuesday, July 19.

Curtis is unemployed except for occasional work provided him by the county relief committee.

Finances Come Out In Clear in Pleasanton

Junior Chamber of Commerce Feels Event Was Immense Success

With the tabulation of all bills last week at a meeting of the finance committee for the Pleasanton Fourth celebration, it was revealed that the Junior Chamber of Commerce will just break even on the expenses of the affair.

With the total expenses running close to fifteen hundred dollars, figures on the receipts from the track, concessions and dances show that the chamber will be able to pay all bills at once. There was a little fear earlier in the week that the chamber might run slightly in the red, in the celebration.

In view of these facts, members feel that the week-end was a decided success. The biggest crowd Pleasanton has known in years was drawn to the city. The young business men of the organization are already planning for a bigger and better celebration next year.

As a result of a liquor raid conducted last Tuesday evening by Jester and O'Hara, federal investigators, sent out by the Federal Government, Frank Lewis, Clifford Nevis, and A. K. Van Kirk, of Pleasanton, are out under a $1500 bail because they were caught violating the National Prohibition Act.

All three were taken into Oakland Tuesday evening and appeared before the Federal commissioner Wednesday morning.

The three men were arrested after the officers raided two places in Pleasanton. Van Kirk is proprietor of the Cozy Corner Grill, while Frank Lewis is owner of the Lewis Candy store. Clifford Nevis was employed by Lewis at the time of the raid.

Council Plans Street Oiling in Pleasanton

Ashton Britten To Continue With Sewer Farm Experiments

Discussing the street oiling situation in Pleasanton took up most of the time of the City Council at a meeting held at the City Hall last Tuesday evening.

Work on oiling all the side and back streets in Pleasanton will commence soon, it was stated. Several of the councilmen have been busy investigating the matter and conferring with Heafy-Moore contractors and property owners during the past week.

The councilmen also listened to a report given by Ashton Britten, of Sunol, who has been experimenting at the sewer farm. Britten asked for thirty days more to continue with his experiment, and he was given an additional period to work on the sewer farm problem.
